WHEREAS: Agricutlure is the basic industry of the Great State of South Dakota. Volunteer leaders and members of rural organizations are working diligently to make this a safer industry. Nevertheless, injuries and fatalities continue to happen in farming and ranching. These tragedies lay waste to human and economic resources that are so important to our State of South Dakota. Farm Safety is a matter of importance to every citizen of South Dakota.

WHEREAS: Tribute should be paid to those men, women and children who have devoted time and energy to rural safety programs in the past. We must continue to call their efforts to public attention. We must increase the eradication of hazards and promotion of public safety practices that will make farming and ranching a more safe occupation in the future.

WHEREAS: These are the major objectives of South Dakota Farm Safety Week in this year of 1965.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby call on the people and organizations allied with agriculture to engage in a united effort to observe the week beginning July 25, 1965, as

SOUTH DAKOTA FARM SAFETY WEEK

I urge all farm and ranch families, and all people and organizations to engage in a united effort to reduce accidents at work, in homes, at recreation and on our state's highways and roads.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Great State of South Dakota to be affixed this 1st day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.
